TR747 Pendant

Description

The Tom Rossau TR747 pendant, also known as "Come Fly with Me" is constructed from 32 hand folded birch veneer planes.

The paper plane is one of the most iconic elements from the childhood, and Tom Rossau was inspired by memories playing as a child with paper planes, with his grandfather in the living room.

The planes are flying around the light source in a playful way creating a sphere. Resulting in a warm and beautiful illumination of the wings of the planes.
