

OSCAR, BOBBY AND RUFUS
FUN AND PLAY

His love of dogs prompted a young Hans Bølling to design Oscar in 1953, followed by his brother Bobby and Rufus, which has the same technical details and clean lines but bigger in dimensions. The three characters represent a timeless depiction of the four-legged man's best friend.

Their bodies can be arranged so that they imitates everything a real dog can do. From sitting to begging to playing or crawling, their personality shines through, making them a joyful companion for everyday.
